

Info Sheet

It's that time of the year again, temperature dropping, wind strength increasing and snow on the Barrington Tops.

Must mean only one thing!

Time for the 2014 version of Night Owl Mid Winter Trial.

Again based in the Manning Valley, starting and finishing in Gloucester.

Three Divisions of approximately 170 Km each on generally good gravel & sealed roads, which are generally suitable for standard road going vehicles.

As usual there will be three categories of Navigation;

Masters; Route plotting, map measuring etc

Apprentice; As above plus a few more clues

Novice; A bit of above, more clues & a bit of Route Chart

So get out your map boards & navigation gear (a Compass is always useful) and winter woollies and join in the fun.

There will be a get together meal on the Friday night for those early arrives.

Supplementary Regulations are now available at <http://historically.com.au/june-2014/>
